- b. A complaint can be anything which a parent, teacher, competitor or community member thinks is unfair, or which makes them unhappy with the service provided
- c. Complaints are to be resolved as quickly as possible. When an official written complaint is lodged the parties involved are to attempt to settle the matter through the appropriate written communication policy as stated above.

- e. The secretary will keep a written record including the following details:
 - Date complaint received
 - Details of the written complaint received which contains a full description of the situation

The Dubbo Eisteddfod Society members are deeply saddened by the passing of two of our past cherished committee members this year. It is with heavy hearts that we mourn their loss, reflecting on their invaluable contributions and indelibly mark they left on our organisation.

Vale Geoffrey “Geoff” Mercer

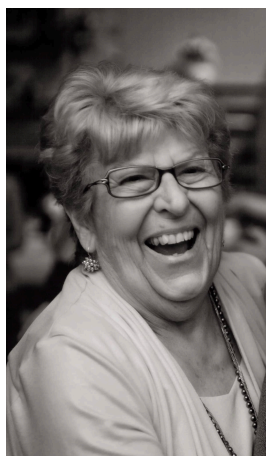

16/08/1939 – 23/02/2024

Geoff was not just a cherished member of our team; he was an integral part of it, leaving an indelible mark on all of us. Geoff's tenure as Treasurer spanned many years, during which his diligence and dedication were unmatched. His meticulous approach ensured the financial stability of our organisation, allowing us to thrive and fulfill our mission. Geoff's passion for the arts, particularly music, was evident in everything he did. His commitment to excellence and unwavering support will be deeply missed. As we continue our work, we carry his memory with us, drawing strength from his legacy and striving to uphold the standards he set.

Vale Dorothea “Dot” Café

22/02/1938 – 01/03/2024

Dot's presence and contributions to our community, especially as a cherished Eisteddfod member and a Life Member, has left a memorable mark on us all. Her dedication and enthusiasm for the arts enriched every event, leaving lasting memories for all who had the privilege of knowing her. As we reflect on Dot's remarkable legacy, we are reminded of her kindness, generosity, and unwavering commitment to our shared values. Her presence will be deeply missed, but her spirit will continue to inspire us as we carry forward the traditions she held dear.
